L M & S Degree

Devappa Rama Rao, a student of the Grant Medical College, Bombay, had put in a study of 2 years and had passed the First L M & S Examination when he applied for a Part Scholarship in November 1897

He required the Scholarship for 3 years more and this was sanctioned ie from 1st November 1897 He was in receipt of the Scholarship for two years ie till November 189; when he appeared for the Second Examination in Medicine and failed to pass that Examination The Scholarship ceased from Nov'99 But it was renewed for one year from Nov 1900, as he passed the Second Examination at his own expense

The third or the Final Examination in Medicine is a course of two years Y

-ch only one year and he ~~was~~ over by November 1901 As the student has still to continue his studies for one year more, the Scholarship will have to be ~~cut~~ continued till December

The Principal of the Grant Medical College states that Devappa Rama Rao's attendance is regular and his conduct satisfactory
